BRITISH BAROQUE

For Organ & Keyboard

VOLUNTARY on the Old Hundredth

For Organ with Pedal

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

The image displays a KlavarScore for Henry Purcell's 'Voluntary on the Old Hundredth'. The notation is organized into three vertical columns, each representing a different part of the instrument. The first column on the left is for the Organ with Pedal, with a vertical axis labeled 1, 2, 1, 4. The middle column is for the Organ, with a vertical axis labeled 7, 13, 10. The right column is for the Keyboard, with a vertical axis labeled 13. The notation uses vertical lines for notes and horizontal lines for chords, with various symbols like wavy lines and trapezoids indicating specific playing techniques. A circled '8' is visible in the first column at the top.
