The image displays a scrolling KlavarScore for an organ, consisting of two manuals (I and II) and 13 systems of staves. The score is written in a simplified notation style where notes are represented by stems and flags, and rests by horizontal lines. A vertical dashed line runs through the center of the score, indicating the melody line. The score includes various dynamic markings such as pp, p, f, and ppp, as well as performance instructions like quasi, rit., and sempre dim.. The score is enclosed in a large, rounded rectangular frame.
